HISTORY

GSCC is a public, open-door comprehensive community college under the control of the Alabama Community College System. On July 8, 2003, the College was created by the consolidation of Harry M. Ayers State Technical College and Gadsden State Community College.

Harry M. Ayers State Technical College was created by an act of the Alabama Legislature on May 3, 1963, as Harry M. Ayers State Trade School. Later in 1973, the Alabama State Board of Education designated the institution as a technical college. Harry M. Ayers State Technical College is now identified as the Harry M. Ayers Campus of Gadsden State Community College.

The College initially became Gadsden State Community College on February 28, 1985, when the Alabama State Board of Education merged Alabama Technical College, Gadsden State Technical Institute, and Gadsden State Junior College.

Alabama Technical College was founded as the Alabama School of Trades in 1925 and was the first state-operated trade school in the southern United States. In 1973, the name of the “trade school” was changed to Alabama Technical College, and it is now identified as the East Broad Street Campus of Gadsden State Community College.

Gadsden State Technical Institute, the second oldest component of Gadsden State Community College, began operations in 1960 as Gadsden Vocational Trade School, a private training facility. Two years later the State of Alabama assumed ownership of the school and in 1972 renamed it Gadsden State Technical Institute. In 1997, the U.S. Department of Education designated this institution as a “Historically Black College or University” (HBCU). It is now identified as the Valley Street Campus of Gadsden State Community College.

In 1965, Gadsden State Junior College was established. The Junior College is now identified as the Wallace Drive Campus of Gadsden State Community College.

In addition to these campuses, Gadsden State Community College operates the McClellan Center in Calhoun County, Gadsden State Cherokee in Cherokee County, and an instructional site at St. Clair Correctional Facility. See Appendix B for maps and location information.

The Alabama Community College System has designated as the College’s service area the following counties: Calhoun, Cherokee (all but the northern one-sixth), Cleburne, Etowah, and St. Clair (the northeastern third).
